The Dedication

We, the class of 1959, dedicate with gratitude this volume of the MASACKSIC to Hugh O. Macfarlane. His direction and encouragement have developed in large measure the students' responsibilities as citizens of school, community, and nation.

Message

You have chosen a very significant theme for your Yearbook, for Time is a commodity more precious than gold. Without it the finest laboratory is useless to the scientist, and the costliest paints are worthless to the artist. Without it no lesson could be taught, no business built, no illness cured. It is the one indispensable ingredient in any undertaking.

Perhaps lately you have wondered, "Where has it gone, this year? Time never went so fast before." I say to you that from now on each year of your life will rush by more quickly than the one before with little time to learn, to accomplish, to cherish family and friends, to see the world, to succeed. How priceless, then, is this gift of time! How foolish it is to waste any moment!

In this space age we have been able to shorten time. We can circle the globe in hours, we can speak to the world in seconds, but we cannot stop time. We can use it, we can save it, but there is only one way we can keep it: spend time wisely and it is yours forever, held fast within you in the form of knowledge, good memories, emotional maturity, spiritual depth, and success attained; squander it, and it escapes you never to be recaptured.

And so my highest hope for you, the Class of 1959, is that you make good use of the time that stretches out before you.

Sincerely,

H. O. Macfarlane

Foreword

Time alters and transforms our lives both physically and mentally.

As children, we see life as a curiosity, and the learning we receive is transmitted to us through our parents and immediate surroundings. We grasp at new ideas and stumble over the obstacles in our narrow paths.

Time passes, and we mature. We become the youth, the leaders of tomorrow. This giant step from childhood to youth presents many problems, and we often become confused and frustrated. Our private and secluded lives disappear and a new, bigger world opens its doors to us. We seek the meaning of these new horizons and desire to become a part of them. Our curiosity develops into reasoning and logical thinking, and the complexities of life become an intimate part of our selves.

Developing from this trying stage into adulthood is difficult. We examine our lives and our ideals; we discard many prejudices; we look toward farther heights.

Time fashions our lives; it nourishes and strengthens our knowledge, and it gives life a deeper meaning. Thus we develop from the awed child to the mature adult.

On the threshold of our challenging world, life becomes a reality. We plan our future education and careers which will make us a part of this modern age in which Time plays its important role.

Have you carefully thought of the most apparent aspects of this year's theme, "Time"? Are not the past, the present, and the future equally important to each of us?

Have we not learned from the past, are we not engaged in the present, and do we not hope for the future?

Is not education concerned with just this? Only as we profit by past human experience, as we apply ourselves diligently to what we face in the present, and as we plan for the future, can we hope to assume our proper places among the select company of nature's highest creation, Man.

As we travel forth through this maze of time, our hopes are for a bright and successful future. May that brightness and success be in God's will for each of you.

HOWARD G. HERRSCHAFT

One probably realizes most acutely the value of time when he looks back at opportunity to which he failed to respond adequately. Fortunately, most of us have long years ahead in which lost opportunity can be reclaimed and developed.

Time is one factor, only, in the development of the opportunity which is ours. Basic to true happiness are determined, purposeful work, faith in the worthiness of our goals, hope in the outcome of our efforts, respect for ourselves, and love for our fellows.

I wish true happiness for each of you.

HENRY CONE

The class of 1959 will soon terminate its formal education in the Public Schools of Longmeadow. You should now be looking forward to opportunities for further achievement and more worthy self-expression. During the past four years, you have made new friendships, cultivated new tastes, and acquired fresh visions of truth. With these tools you face opportunities of a glorious age. Whether this glorious age is made or marred will depend on habits which you have acquired in the home, church, and school. In addition to the education you have attained in school, take friendship, co-operation, and service into the future; and your glorious age will be transformed from a vision to a reality.

CLASS ADVISORS

Throughout our four years at Longmeadow High School, Mr. Louis Josselyn, our class advisor, has devoted much time and interest to our class. With his excellent guidance, the Class of 1959 has established many precedents which we hope will be of benefit to the school. We are truly indebted to him for making our years at Longmeadow High School most successful.

Miss Hoxie, one of our former teachers, and Miss Baird, our school librarian, have worked with Mr. Josselyn directing our class and have been of invaluable assistance to us.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

When the school year began in September 1955, the eager student body entered the new Longmeadow High School. Along with the hammering and riveting in the "almost completed" building, the freshmen added to the confusion. Yes, we were those freshmen. We managed to keep stiff upper lips throughout that first grueling year and we finished the year with flying colors.

Our first project was to organize our befuddled selves. Oh! what bewildered and pathetic creatures we were! How we remember those months of frustration when . . . we suddenly realized that we had taken the wrong lunch period; we forgot what class was next; we wandered about looking for room seven and our science class. So you see, we did need some general organization. Under the wise guidance of Mr. Louis Josselyn, we held our first class election in October. Ed Mulkerin became our first class president and Sally Wilson, the invaluable vice-president. Our efficient secretary was Sue Streeter, and the "always calculating" John "Twigs" Cox headed the financial department.

During December the History Department held the Freshman Essay Contest in co-operation with the Longmeadow Men's Club. Louise Tincher, Elaine Rachele, and Vonla Burman received the first, second, and third awards, and ten other noteworthy freshmen won honorable mentions.

Among other "highlights" of the year were the extraordinary lunches that were prepared with delicacy. Oh, the day Spanish Lima Beans were our "rations" for lunch! Can we ever forget that? We really can't complain too much though — we haven't had them since! Between boycotts and "can we have a second helping, please?", our cafeteria staff managed nobly. Thanks for putting up with us "little monsters."

1956 was ushered in joyously. The new year brought with it midyear exams which came and went, not any too soon for most of us. When the results of these tests were received, the change was amazing — freshmen were actually studying during free periods. "Sorry, have to talk to you after I finish this algebra problem," became a familiar refrain.

The first annual Girls' Sport Night was held in April under the able direction of Mrs. Janice Wolcott. All awaited the event with great anticipation, especially the boys whose curiosity was aroused by the daily notice: "Please bring your flashlights to practice tonight." Included in the program were tumbling, folk dancing, and the "pressure-packed" basketball game. The evening was a tremendous success, climaxed by the awarding of the trophy to the White Team.

In May we began preparations for the "Spring Swing", the first freshman dance at the High School. As we danced around the "newly-waxed" floor of the cafeteria that unforgettable night, we were slightly conscious of the aroma of Friday's filet of sole. Nevertheless, a good time was had by all and the dance put us into the black financially. It was our final "swing" out of a successful but slightly haphazard freshman year. We left for our summer vacation in June with the blessing of our teachers and hope for a rewarding sophomore year.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Our sophomore year got under way with the class elections. Ed Mulkerin became our president for the second consecutive year; Mike Canter, our diligent vice-president; and Sue Streeter was re-elected secretary. The "still calculating" "Twigs" Cox returned to his position as treasurer.

Establishing the tradition of receiving class rings while sophomores was the highlight of the year. Naturally, the seniors were not too pleased by the thought that "lowly" underclassmen would be wearing the same school rings as they had; however, we were very proud of ourselves.

To celebrate a successful football season, our class sponsored a "Touchdown Twirl." Again we came out on top financially and we added to our already sumptuous treasury.

On April 12 we visited the "Land of Dixie." The second annual Girls' Sport Night revolved around a southern atmosphere. It was highlighted by performances on the apparatus, tumbling, and a basketball game. The evening was concluded with the victorious Jet Team receiving the trophy.

As the end of our sophomore year arrived, thoughts of becoming "upperclassmen" were foremost in our minds. For two years we had been the "underdogs"; soon it would become our privilege to join the seniors as the school's leaders.

JUNIOR YEAR

Our junior year! What a "year to remember"! The class officers were elected in the fall. Ed Mulkerin returned to his perennial office as president, with Bob Kittridge as his capable vice-president. Pert Kathy Wells was elected as secretary, and "Twigs" Cox, with that dollar sign still showing, again settled back to the office he had occupied during the past two years. A new policy was initiated this year. An executive committee was founded to conduct class business more expediently.

In the field of school activities the juniors kept very busy. Under the leadership of Amy Young, the Red Cross Club had its first successful year; Miss Erickson organized the "Cycloramists," who created the scenery for the annual play; the first debating society of Longmeadow High School was started, with two junior classmen holding prominent positions: Jerry VanVoorhis became the president and Sheila Christie, the secretary. During the course of that year, many debates were held, and interest in the club grew. In the spring, three representatives, John Kane, Ed Kaufman, and Jerry VanVoorhis were sent to the Model Congress held at American International College. Representatives from all parts of New England met to introduce individual bills to the Congress. Jerry received honorable mention at this convention for his bill entitled Presidential Disability.

In the realm of sports the football team had a somewhat depressing season; however, the basektball and hockey teams, with excellent records, compensated for it. In spring sports, the baseball team brought Longmeadow High School into the limelight with an undefeated season.

During that year the teams from the high school were chosen to enter the Massachusetts Small School Tournament and the Pioneer Valley Soccer League, both honors stimulating school spirit and pride. There was much spirit, too, in our first high school majorette, Carolyn Gregory.

In keeping with the winter season the Dramatic Club presented "January Thaw". The unforgettable Peter Russell played the lead role, and other juniors — Jerry VanVoorhis, Wendell Schmidt, John Kane, Mike Canter, and Sheila Christie were in the supporting cast.

The spring of 1958 was a glorious one. We held our Junior Prom on May 10. Elaborate decorations were designed and extensive publicity aided the overwhelming ticket sales for the dance. Howie Nannen was kept busy as the chairman of the prom. At 8:00 P.M. Saturday night the girls were gallantly escorted to "An Affair to Remember". Pretty Carolyn Gregory was crowned Queen, and her date, the proud King.

Mr. Ward, the new director of music, held a Spring Concert, which was a milestone for the Music Department. Included in the program were selections by the Glee Club, Freshman Chorus, Band, Orchestra, and several soloists. Distinguished among the latter was the performance of Jean Norton, a very fine pianist. The outstanding talent of Richard Levine was given expression in his beautiful hymnal composition, which was sung by the Glee Club. As another part of the activities in the Music Department, the Girls' Chorus had the pleasure of entertaining both Blueberry Hill School and the Junior High School at separate concerts. The music for those programs was written by Rogers and Hammerstein.

On April 15, 1958, the girls took a trip "Around the World in One Hundred and Twenty Minutes". The third annual Sport Night, supervised by Mrs. Wolcott, was heralded as the climax of the girls' athletic program. There were such highlights as performances on the apparatus, gymnastics, and the unforgettable tableaux. What a beautiful sight these statues were — but that's not the half of it, is it, girls?

Many members of our class had become outstanding students. These people were honored during the junior year with special awards. Jim Lawsing received the Harvard Book Award; Carolyn Gregory was selected as the Governor's Aide for the Eastern States Exposition; Bobby Kittredge was awarded the Williams Book Award;

Jerry VanVoorhis and Jim Lawsing were chosen to represent Longmeadow High School at Massachusetts Boys' State and Kathy Wells, Lucy Alspach, and Alyce Atwood were chosen for Massachusetts Girls' State.

The Graduating Class of 1958 selected Kathy Wells and Ed Mulkerin as the Marshals for their graduation. This was an important event for our class. Next year we would be selecting class marshals from the Junior Class to lead our own graduation procession.

SENIOR YEAR

Our year to shine had finally arrived! We were top brass at last. The oft-mentioned graduation saddened us a bit; nevertheless, here it was, our final year in high school, and how we were going to enjoy it!

That wonderful year we had long awaited was altered a bit by the frustration of preparing for college. The signing of applications, the reports from the colleges — these problems filled our year with anxiety and restlessness. We did, however, manage to pull through and end the year with a memorable graduation.

The leaders of our senior class had already become solid foundations in the building of the class. Ed Mulkerin held the position of president for his fourth year; the statesman, Jerry VanVoorhis, was elected as vice-president; and Kathy Wells returned as secretary. "Twigs" Cox, the "still calculating and ever popular" treasurer, once more settled back into his honorable position, which he had so capably handled for three years.

The Honor Society, under the guidance of Miss MacIntyre, elected Jerry VanVoorhis as president, Jim Lawsing as vice-president, and Ed Mulkerin as treasurer. This upper strata of intelligence held its alumni tea on December 22. Many graduates talked over old times with the present members and the faculty.

The 1959 Yearbook staff had a difficult time, to say the least, getting the fourth edition of the MASACKSIC to press. Kathy Wells was a most efficient editor along with her staff editors, Lucy Alspach in the Literary Department, Pat Ashton covering sports, Nancy Carruthers, Art Editor, and John Kane in charge of the Business Department. The versatile literary staff seemed to be the pet peeve of the whole yearbook; they just never quite agreed on such subjects as QUOTES!

Joan Bachulus and Jerry VanVoorhis became the outstanding editors of the Jet Jotter, and through their hard work and originality, the paper reached its climax. With the able assistance of many Senior classmen, new ideas were incorporated in the paper and "progress became their most important product."

Another phase of our school activities was the athletic program. The football team lept through an undefeated season! Good work, fellows! Paul Brouwer and Ed Mulkerin, the two co-captains, left the team that year; but their valuable "know-how" has been transmitted to the other members of the team. Everyone is confident that in following years success will be their motto. Out on the soccer field, Alex Klutch and Jim Lawsing led the "bandy-legged" team through a dynamic season.

Who can forget our cheerleaders? Faithfully they appeared at every soccer and football game, spurring the boys on to victory. Vivacious Sue Lawsing was captain of the cheerleaders, and Nina Brecht and Penny Clarke were the other seniors on the squad.

One of the most outstanding seniors was Bob Stahl, who received a certificate of honor for his exceptional work in the Merit Scholarship Examinations.

Time marched on, and we approached the end of the long highway. We felt honored to have been the first class to spend all four years at Longmeadow High School. We had taken part in establishing the traditions of our school, proudly realizing that long after our names had been forgotten and our faces had grown dim, these ideals and traditions would continue to live in the corridors and classrooms of Longmeadow High School.

As we, the Class of 1959, pause to reminisce about our years at Longmeadow High School, one bit of philosophy seems to stand out in our minds. Thus, as the departing seniors, we leave to you, our successors, this one epigram:

> "Freshmen know not and know not that they know not.
> Sophomores know not and know that they know not.
> Juniors know and know not that they know.
> Seniors know and know that they know."

PLAYDAY

Set it up!

Play Day — a day of fun for all!

Each spring the Student Council sponsors this event. The faculty and students enjoy softball games, tugs of war, relay races, and exciting tennis matches.

This year a similar day was held in June, and both the faculty and student body enthusiastically joined in the activities.

Hey, boys! Up here!

This is fistball????

MASACKSIC

The staff of the 1959 MASACKSIC began its year's work with the selection of a timely theme. The individual departments, under the direction of Mr. Suher, Mrs. Pelczarski, and Miss Erickson, then planned their schedules accordingly and began "burning the midnight oil." Advertisements were solicited by the Business Department while the Literary Staff prepared the Senior Section. The Art and Photography Departments then co-ordinated this material in the layout designs and the formal and candid photographs.

Congratulations to each staff member and advisor for his untiring efforts and contributions to the 1959 MASACKSIC.

JET JOTTER

This has been a year of firsts for the Jet Jotter. Through the efforts of Jerry Van Voorhis and Joan Bachulus, the following projects were initiated: the lengthening of the newsprint, adoption of a new masthead, and notable improvement in the articles. During the winter months, preparation was made for the commercial printing of the newspaper, and finally, in February, after arrangements had been made, the Jet Jotter issued the newspaper's first printed edition.

With the invaluable assistance of the faculty advisors and the two editors, Jerry and Joan, the staff wrote, edited, and published many outstanding editions of the Jet Jotter.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1959 Student Council directed several programs which increased the Scholarship Fund. Among these were the sale of monogrammed sweatshirts and Longmeadow High School banners, as well as school book covers. As additional projects, the Council sponsored a talent show, the honor study hall, the publication of the Student Handbook, and Play Day.

With the capable assistance of Mr. Shindler and Mr. Joly, their program was not only financially successful, but also of great benefit to the students.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In the fall of 1958, the sixteen members of the Longmeadow Chapter of the National Honor Society conducted an initial meeting with Miss MacIntyre, their advisor. Under her supervision the following officers were elected: Jerry Van Voorhis, president; Jim Lawsing, vice-president; Joan Bloom, secretary; Ed Mulkerin, treasurer.

The members of the society are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholastic achievement and personal merit, the members being restricted to outstanding students from the Junior and Senior classes.

Throughout the year the Honor Society has sponsored such successful projects as the December reception for alumni, members, and faculty and the coat check service at all school functions. Profits from the latter project supplemented the Honor Society Scholarship Fund which had been established at the beginning of the year. Activities for the future include a tutoring system, an orientation program for freshmen, and special initiation ceremonies for new members of the Honor Society.

DEBATING CLUB

"Resolved that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British System of Education." This controversial resolution was the theme around which the Longmeadow High School Debating Club centered their year's program.

DEBATING CLUB OFFICERS

D. Richter, Treasurer; S. Flint, Secretary; D. Poole, Vice-President; E. Kaufman, President.

Under the leadership of Ed Kaufman, president; Debby Poole, vice-president; Sue Flint, secretary; and Dave Richter, treasurer; the group met weekly to discuss debating procedure and to participate in after-school debates.

Once again, select members entered the American International College Model Congress which enabled them to apply their general knowledge in competitive debates.

Their advisor, Mrs. Harrison, deserves much credit for the success of the group; her encouragement has stimulated continued interest in the Society.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Thornton Wilder's farce, "The Matchmaker", opened the season for the Dramatic Club. Mike Palmer in the role of Horace Vandergelder proved his talent admirably, and supported by the entire cast, did a commendable job.

It is hoped that in future years weekly club meetings will be held and two productions will be presented during the year.

For his invaluable advice and masterful direction, Mr. Lopes deserves much praise.

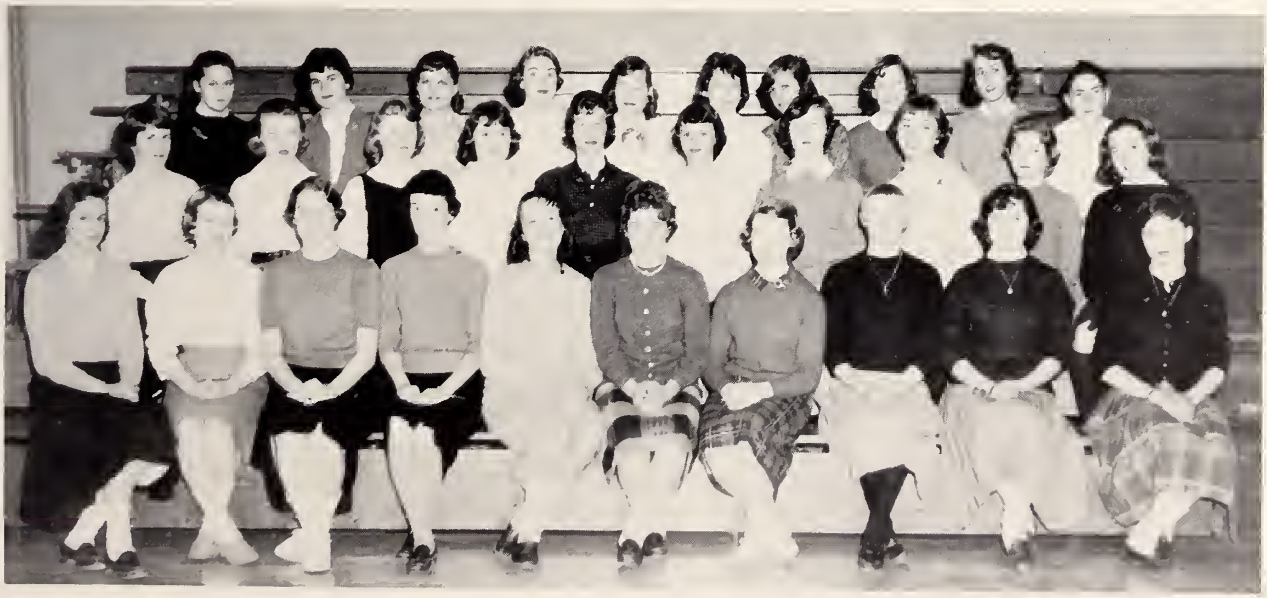
CYCLORAMISTS

The Cycloramists, a group of talented students working with Miss Erickson and the Art Department, create the scenery and stage decorations for the annual play.

This group, which was organized in 1958, continued its program this year by designing, painting, and arranging the scenery for the play, "The Matchmaker."



CYCLORAMISTS

MUSIC

The Music Department this year has had the opportunity of working under the direction of Mr. Burkle. He sponsored a Christmas program and several enjoyable spring concerts which included the performances of the Glee Club, Band, Orchestra, and individual talented students.

A new policy of the department provided for the election of student directors, section leaders, and librarians for the aforementioned groups.

The Glee Club has a membership of interested students from grades ten through twelve. This club rehearses twice a week, at which time either Mr. Burkle or the student director conducts the session.

A Select Vocal Group, with a membership of twenty-five, was an outgrowth of the Glee Club and a new addition to the music curriculum. It has participated in the community school program and the Western Massachusetts Festival.

The Band and Orchestra are two of the most important organizations within the department. The Band participated at all football and basketball games at the school. With the Orchestra it performed at the annual Christmas and spring concerts and the Massachusetts Festival. In addition to these activities, select ensembles performed at the dedication ceremonies of the recently completed section of the high school building.

Also newly organized this year was a school dance band, which gave a special performance for the students as an introduction to their group.

The Music Department has incorporated the interest and enthusiasm of the students, displaying their talents in their varied musical programs.

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDES CLUB

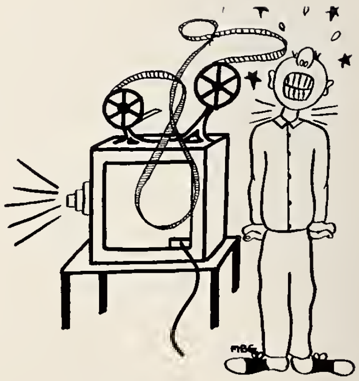
Through the efforts of Mr. Pratt, the Audio-Visual Aides Club has become a significant school activity. Its main purpose, service to the faculty and student body, is evident in its many activities. The members are taught the methods of operation of motion picture projectors, tape recorders, and slide projectors and the principles underlying these devices. This modern equipment is available to these students during the week when initial training is given and skills are attained. These skills include the arrangement of sound and lighting systems, through which an interested student applies his knowledge in practical projects.



PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

First Row: E. Bloom, D. Dubuisson, Mr. Rossiter-Advisor, J. Ward, D. Fordyce. Second Row: N. Cohn, B. Donovan, R. Kagan, H. Decker, B. Atwood, M. Levine.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

To enable interested students to participate in this popular field, the Photography Club was organized by Mr. Rossiter, assisted by Elliot Bloom, president; Dave DuBuisson, vice-president and lab chief; and Jack Ward, treasurer. The thirteen members of this year's club have been instructed in the fundamentals and fine points of photography and development of films. Two of the more enterprising members, Dave DuBuisson and Duncan Fordyce, have begun an extensive project of darkroom work and have done some color developing.

The services of this club are available throughout the school to the students and faculty for scholastic and extracurricular activities. Due to the excellent equipment provided and the interest exhibited by its members, this club has gained much popularity.

BUSINESS CLUB OFFICERS

D. Breglio, Vice-President; D. Jacques, President; E. Rachele, Treasurer.

BUSINESS CLUB

The thirty members of the Business Club, under the direction of Mr. Shindler, have gained knowledge of the business field through their school activities. These members have acquired skills in clerical work by serving as Office Aides and by operating the school's business machines. Several field trips were taken to local offices and business establishments where the students had direct contact with office procedure. As another phase of its activities, the Club sponsors an annual dance which, this year, was held in February.

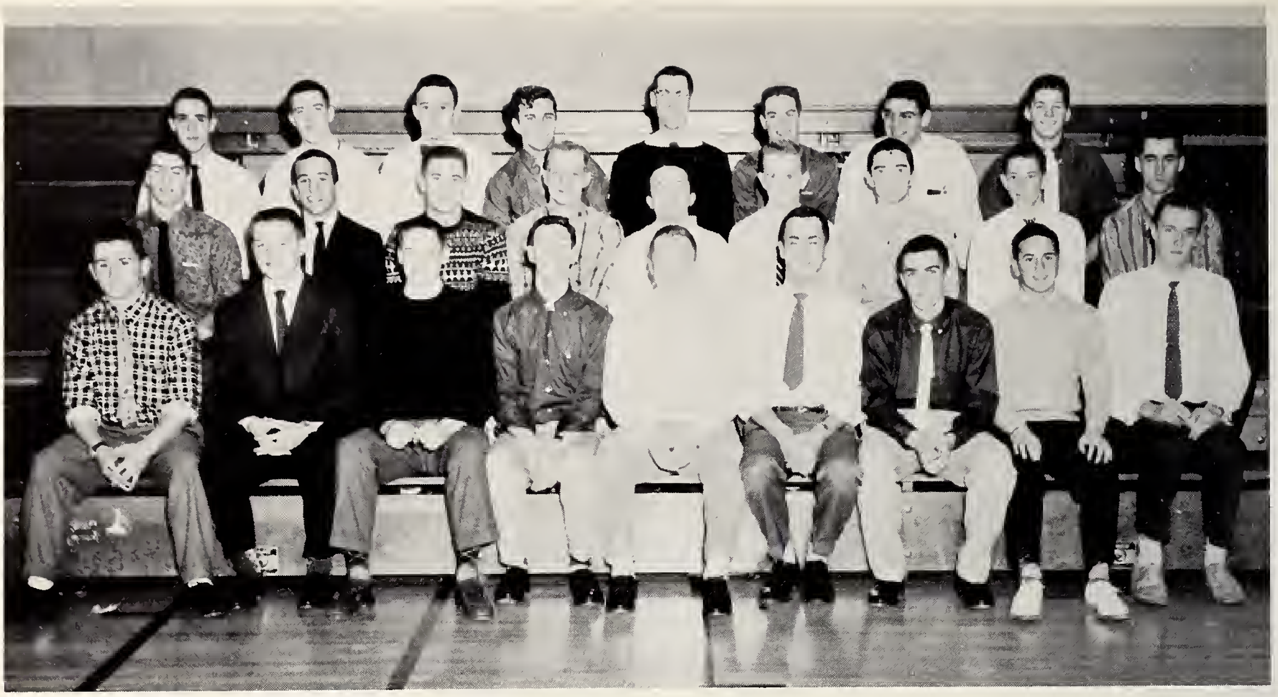
The Junior Achievement Bank has become, since 1955, an integral part of Longmeadow High School. This year's officers are Harriet Levine, president; Elaine Rachele, vice-president; Pat Mucha, secretary; Liz Talbot and Amy Young, treasurer and assistant treasurer; and Belle Rita Margolis, representative to the Junior Achievement Council. Their school advisor, Mr. Shindler, co-operating with Mrs. Hale and Mr. Cross, advisors from the Springfield Institution for Savings, has aided the club in such projects as a contest to encourage the use of the Bank's services. Prizes were awarded to students who banked for a specified number of weeks.

The Junior Achievement Bank, which serves both the student body and the faculty, is a notable organization in our school program.



TRAFFIC SQUAD

"Be prepared", that's the Boy Scouts marching song,
"Be prepared", as though school you march along.
"Be prepared" to shield us all from rushing traffic,
Don't give us all detention, that's not nice!
And remember to recite your code of ethics . . .
Oh, "be prepared", that's the banner that they hold,
"BE PREPARED!": to check passes to assist the elderly faculty across the hall to detain those fascinating females to be first in the lunch line to reside in the library to leave classes ten minutes early.

Actually, this enthusiastic group of young men has added both efficiency and order to our school's smooth operation. Even though we sometimes resent their stern appearances and gruff voices, we respect their efforts and responsibilities.

"Be Prepared!"

RED CROSS CLUB

This year the Red Cross Club launched their annual drive by initiating a novel campaign for funds. By nominations of the students, three seniors were selected for both king and queen to be crowned at the first all school dance of the year. From these six candidates, the two finalists were elected through votes by donations from the student body. After the final tabulation, Steve Balthaser and Sue Lawsing were honored as the king and queen. Through funds from the drive, the group presented Christmas gifts to the children of the Buckingham Study Home and sponsored a party at Monson State Hospital.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Blakeborough, advisor, and Joanne Talbert, president of the organization, the Red Cross Club enjoyed a very successful year.

AIDES

The many service organizations at Longmeadow High School have been invaluable assets to the students and faculty.

In the library Miss Baird was assisted by interested students who undertook many routine tasks necessary to the physical operation of the library. Charging books, preparing new books for circulation, and properly shelving those returned were among the principal duties of the student assistants. As the year progressed, further responsibilities to aid in the efficiency of the library routine were added to the members' duties.

The students who participated in cafeteria work performed such duties as cashiering during lunch periods, making change and counting the receipts after each lunch, and serving lunch to the faculty members.

In the main office one finds several students aiding the staff by operating the switchboard, ditto machines and telephone, and by sorting mail, typing, and filing reports.

These student aides were greatly appreciated for their invaluable assistance in the library, cafeteria and office.

The French Club of Longmeadow High School was a noteworthy addition to the extra-curricular activities of the school. Under the direction of our three French teachers, Miss MacIntyre, Mrs. Alonzo, and Mr. Houle, the club held its first meeting in February and elected the following officers: Mike Mazer, president; Ed Kaufman, vice-president; Andrea Leers, secretary; Liz Katten, treasurer. Membership was extended to interested students taking courses in French.

Highlights of the year's program included motion pictures, slides, and lectures about France, the presentation of original skits, a "pique-nique," and correspondence with French pen pals. These activities stimulated much interest and through the use of spoken French, the members have become "les maîtres de la langue."

The "Roman Banquet" is about to begin. The Banquet, a major function of the Latin Club, is an annual affair. Under the direction of its officers, president, Wendell Schmidt, vice-president, Chuck Wessendorf, secretary, Andrea Leers, and treasurer, Paul Valliere, the club presented in addition to the banquet, two movies, "Julius Caesar" and "Quo Vadis." The advisors, Mrs. Pelczarski, Mrs. Leab, and Mr. Houle, have been most helpful. To them the members say, "Multas gratias."

FOOTBALL

We, who were associated with Longmeadow High this year, witnessed the development of individual players from all four classes into a well integrated and highly talented football team. This past season has been the most successful we have ever had on the gridiron.

The Lancers finished the season with a record of five wins and two ties. The ties were the outcomes of the first four games, a fact indicative of the fine progress made by the players with the aid of Mr. Ursprung, Mr. D'Agostino, and Mr. Harris of the coaching staff. In the next three games, the Lancers emerged victorious and went on to an undefeated season. This was no great surprise to those of us who closely followed the squad's progress. The fine exhibition of talent and sportsmanship on the field of play made all of us proud of our victorious football team.

The first game on the Lancer's schedule was played against Commerce. Due to good blocking and running, the Lancers won an impressive 30-6 victory. Sophomore Al Stewart clicked for three T.D.'s and averaged about six yards a carry. Quarterback Paul Brouwer's passing added considerably to the number of yards gained.

On their next outing, the Lancers played to a 6-6 deadlock against Lee. Offensive end Glenn Snyder, defenseman Dick Murphy and linebacker Bob MacDonnell played brilliant ball during the hard fought contest. Finally Paul Brouwer's aerial to Dale Richter broke Lee's twenty game winning streak by tieing the score.

The Lancers' next game with Classical was a thriller which ended in an 8-8 tie. Once again sophomore fullback Al Stewart churned out the needed yardage for the only Lancer tally which was the result of a pass from Brouwer to Snyder. Brouwer then converted for the extra points by scooting around end.

The following Saturday, the hard-charging Lancers met Palmer in a 22-0 victory. Paul Brouwer ran for two touchdowns and Dale Richter scored on an aerial from Bob MacDonnell; Eddie Mulkerin and Denny Robb added the extra points.

In the fifth game, the Lancer eleven played host to the green of Enfield. Ed Mulkerin, Denny Robb, and Al Stewart scored behind a wall of excellent blocking set up by linemen Ron MacGregor and Mike Flemister. Paul Brouwer then threw a 20-yard aerial to Glenn Snyder for the final tally, resulting in Longmeadow's 24-12 victory over Enfield.

In the last game of the season, the Lancer gridmen defeated Leicester 28.0. Quarterback Bob MacDonnell and halfback Bob Kittredge played a brilliant game. Paul Brouwer threw two touchdown passes to add to Al Stewart's and Ed Mulkerin's touchdown plunges.

Post season selections for an All-Independent team in the Western Massachusetts area put Glenn Snyder and Paul Brouwer on the first team while Dale Richter, Al Stewart, Dave Harper and Maury Jocobson received second team honors.

The many returning varsity players under the leadership of Denny Robb and Bob MacDonnell, co-captains, promise to produce another successful season for the Longmeadow Lancers.

SOCCER

The 1958 Lancer soccer team was selected as one of the original members of the newly formed Pioneer Valley Soccer League. In addition to Longmeadow, the League consists of teams from West Springfield, Ludlow, Monson, and Chicopee.

The Lancers, coached by Mr. Suher, finished the season with a very good record of eight wins, five losses, and two ties. This record is deceptive, however, as all five losses were by scores of 1-0 or 2-1. The highlights of the season were the Lancers' 1-0 victory over Monson, which spoiled Monson's quest for the Pioneer Valley title, and the 1-1 tie against Ludlow, the final victor of the title.

The Longmeadow team set two league records during the course of the season. Against Chicopee, Alex Klutch made the most goals in one game—5, and in the same match the team scored the most goals in any one game—8.

Post season selections for the Pioneer Valley League All-Star team placed three Longmeadow players on the first squad. Co-captain Alex Klutch, Howie Nannen, and Dick Zanolli were the players chosen. Co-captain Jim Lawsing, Ed Mazer and Phil Stone were selected for the second team.

BASKETBALL

The Lancer quintet, finishing fast with significant wins over Monson, Agawam, and Ludlow, ended the 1958-1959 basketball season with an 11-5 record.

Longmeadow was led by senior captains John "Twigs" Cox and Paul Brouwer, outstanding guard Glenn Snyder, and sophomores Dale Richter and Ned Cummings. Senior reserves Howie Nannen, Jim Lawsing, Jeff Guidetti and Ed Mulkerin, plus junior Dick Murphy completed this year's Lancer squad.

In reviewing the season's games, one comes to mind as the most exciting. Commerce, a top city team which reached the semi-finals of the Western Massachusetts State Tourney, narrowly won over Longmeadow, 52-51. Johnny Cox with 15 points, Paul Brouwer with 10, and Ned Cummings with 12 played sensational ball. This game, and many others, proved that Longmeadow, coached by Mr. Haskell, was one of the toughest squads in the state. Other highlights of the season included an 80-point score against East Windsor and an invitation to play in the Western Massachusetts Small School Tournament.

The statistics at the end of the season showed that Glenn Snyder was high scorer with a total of 231 points while Dale Richter was a close second with 202 points. John Cox was third with 183 points, Paul Brouwer fourth with 137 points, and Ned Cummings fifth with 131 points.

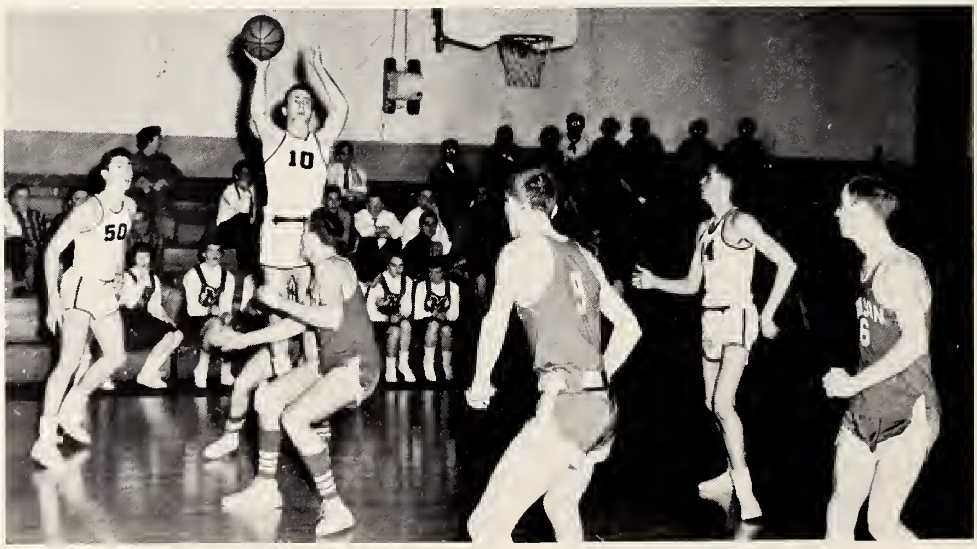
JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mr. Josselyn, wound up with a record of 15 wins and 1 loss. Sophomore Al Stewart and Juniors Mike O'Malley, Bill Craft, Bob MacDonnell, Tom Astaldi, and Mike Palmer aided the team in setting its impressive record. These players appear to be good material for a tournament-winning varsity team next year.



FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

The Longmeadow Freshman Basketball team, coached by Mr. Suher, ended the season with an impressive 7-4 record. High scorers for the team were Jim Pool, Jim Duval, and Bill Sunter.

The team's record indicates that next year's Junior Varsity team should be outstanding.

SMALL SCHOOL TOURNAMENT
1959

For the second consecutive year, Longmeadow had the honor of being invited to the Western Massachusetts Small School Tournament. Longmeadow's first opponent, Arms Academy, put up a stiff fight, but was finally overcome by the Lancers, 40-38. On the second night, Amherst Regional became the victim of Longmeadow and was defeated 47-38. This victory earned the Lancers the right to oppose Saint Joseph's in the finals where they were finally stopped by a score of 45-35. Although the Lancers lost out in the finals, they deserve much credit for the fine show of basketball skill and sportsmanship that was displayed throughout all three games.

HOCKEY

The Lancer Puckmen charged to a gallant finish and ended out the 1958-1959 hockey season in fine style, capturing first place in the Western Massachusetts Suburban League.

Longmeadow was led by senior captains, Alex Klutch and Bob Kittridge. Outstanding defenseman Dick Zanolli and sophomore forwards Phil Collins and Brian Edgerly completed the starting lineup. Don Jacques also contributed greatly on both line and defense. Senior Phil Stone and sophomore Bill Sproul, sharing the goal-tending duties, held the opposition to a total of twenty-six goals in thirteen games; the Lancers, however, penetrated their rivals' defenses for forty-six goals.

Highlights of the season included two wins over Holyoke and Chicopee. The latter victory made possible the Suburban League title and a berth in the Massachusetts State Hockey Tournament. The Lancers were selected along with two other Western Massachusetts teams and their performance in the tourney was the best of the year.

The outlook for next year's team is very promising. Returning to the squad will be leading scorers, Phil Collins and Brian Edgerly, hussling Skip Baird and rugged John Zacheus whose efforts will produce another successful season.

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

The Longmeadow High Hockey Team was selected, as Surburban League Champions, to play in the Massachusetts State Hockey Tournament as a representative of Western Massachusetts. Although they lost to Wakefield, 2-0 in the first round, the team played an outstanding game.

In the first period both teams were held scoreless. This was due to the fine forechecking of Skip Baird and Alex Klutch.

After a twenty minute rest the Lancer puck-men returned to the ice with an even greater desire to win. Half way through the period Wakefield found an opening in the lower right hand corner of the net and connected for their first goal. The fine defensive checks of Dick Zanolli and the outstanding saves of Goalie Bill Sproul kept the team alive to enter the final period.

This period was the clincher for Wakefield for, with five minutes remaining, the skaters from Wakefield came up with a picture goal from the left side for their final tally. Longmeadow had many fine point blank shots and was only stopped by the excellent goal-tending of Paul Hubbard from Wakefield.

Bill Sproul is especially deserving of credit for his fine job in keeping the high scoring team from Wakefield to only two goals.

The Longmeadow Team was very grateful for having the opportunity to participate in this tournament and was also grateful for the visit of the Bruin's defenseman, Bob Armstrong, before the game.

BASEBALL

After a losing season in 1957, the Lancer nine had only one goal in mind: a perfect season. Last year's season marks the first time in Longmeadow High School history that an athletic team has been undefeated.

Each game during the season was a warmup for the next successful game, for the pitching improved and the batting became more accurate. Alex Klutch, Dick Schneider, and Glenn Snyder shared the spot on the mound. Klutch with a four-win record and Schneider and Snyder with three wins apiece halted the opponents. Dick Zanolli, Ed Mulkerin, and Dick Schneider led in the total hits department.

In post season selections, Longmeadow High placed two men on the Western Massachusetts Honorable Mention List. Versatile Glenn Snyder was picked for his fielding and pitching, while Dick Zanolli received recognition for his hitting and also for his fielding in the hot corner.

This year, eight of the nine starters will be returning with hopes for another perfect season.

The 1958 Lancer Cindermen participated in four triangular meets and the Western Massachusetts High School Track meet. Although as a team they were not victorious in any of the meets, certain individuals were consistent winners for the team. Bob Kittridge in the low hurdles division and Bruce Aldrich in the mile run continually earned points for the team. The Lancer relay team, composed of Bill Cox, Doug Forth, Don Robb, and Dave Taylor, placed in the 880-yard relay of the High School track meet.

The majority of last year's team will be returning this spring with much experience, and hopes for a victorious season are high.

TENNIS

The Lancer tennis team ended its season with a five win, two loss record. Although the netmen did not have much practice because of bad weather, they still accumulated a fine record. Both losses were suffered at the hands of the Springfield College Freshmen. Don Drinkwater, who piloted the team to a successful season, was honored by being seeded as first man. Other men, including Jeff Guidetti, Sam Cady, and Don Baird, also compiled impressive records.

Motivated by the same spirit and aggressiveness on the courts as shown last year, Longmeadow's tennis team can look forward to another successful season.

GOLF

During the 1958 golf season, the Lancer team was in its formative stages, for, out of the six men who played the scheduled matches, only two had any previous competitive experience. However, as the season progressed, the new members of the squad showed marked improvement and aided the team to compile a five win, three loss record.

Promise of a victorious 1959 season rests in the talents of Phil Collins, Neil Day, and Zane Mirkin, and the enthusiastic efforts of the coach, Mr. Haskell.

This year the team bowled in the Interschool League, which includes teams from Commerce, Trade, Technical, Classical and Cathedral. Regular bowlers were Sam Rickless, Richard Kagan, Mike Parker, Bill Buckley, Barry Kittredge and Dave Christensen. These same team members will be returning next year with hopes for a winning season.

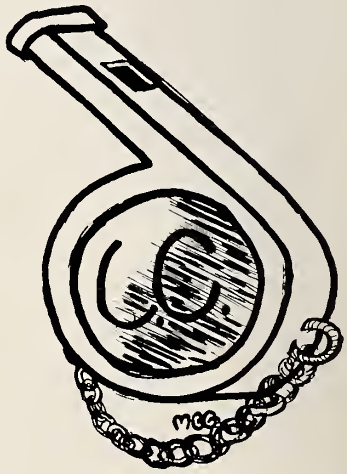
LEADERS' CLUB

The 1958-1959 Girls and Boys Leaders' Club has worked diligently assisting Miss Kelsey and Mr. D'Agostino by assuming routine duties in their gym classes and in intramural games after school. The members have gained considerable leadership training which will serve them throughout their lives.

In October the Leaders' Club Sock Hop was held and, as usual, was one of the most popular events of the school year. A large percentage of the student body attended and enjoyed the informal recreation and dancing.

In May, the Club planned an outing for a day at Ted Hilton's resort in Moodus, Connecticut, where all types of recreation were enjoyed by the members. Although the water was very cold, the outdoor swimming pool attracted the majority of the members for a splashing good time. This trip proved so successful that everyone hopes to return.

The Leaders' Club deserves a great deal of credit for its able assistance in the Physical Education Department. Miss Kelsey and Mr. D'Agostino are most appreciative of the member's aid.



GIRLS' SPORTS

On February 11, the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team played a game against MacDuffie School for Girls at the Trinity gym. This thrilling game ended in a 26-25 victory for Longmeadow. Alyce Atwood was the high scorer for the Lancerettes with 14 points. Betsey Burbank and Jo Peters had 5 points apiece and Kathy Wells added two points to complete the scoring. In a Junior Varsity game, MacDuffie emerged victorious by a score of 27-5.

The following Friday, February 20th, the girls scheduled another game with MacDuffie, this time in the gym at the high school. The home gym proved unlucky to the girls, however, as MacDuffie won the game by a score of 25-16.

On March 20, the Girls' Volleyball team held a playday with MacDuffie, South Hadley, and Westfield in the high school gym. Two teams represented each school in a round-robin tournament.

"IT'S SMART to line up job interviews well in advance of graduation. And one of the best places I know to contact is the Telephone Company. Several of us from my graduating class are working here — and every one of us loves it."

Telephone jobs are important ones. We have our own training program which you can enter without any previous job experience. The pay is good, and you'll get regular raises.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate. Ask the Guidance Counselor at your school to tell you when and where to apply.

INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS

"Bank Day" at the Lancer Savings Bank, a Junior Achievement Company, provides the opportunity for Longmeadow High School students to save ahead for the things they need and want.

But the need for saving does not end with graduation. How you handle your money will play an important part in your happiness, for if you spend unwisely, you will find your money gone and your real goals still unattained.

Make this important decision now — that you will save regularly. Lancer bank books may always be used at any S.I.S. office, or we will be glad to open a new book if you have none.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
THE CLASS OF 1959

We, the Senior Class of 1959, being of exhausted minds and tortured bodies, declare this to be our last will and testament and bequeath the following:

Albert Mayer leaves his empty notebook to Miss Jensen.
Carolyn Gregory leaves her curly hair to Eline Dierauf.
Elizabeth Talbot leaves her composure to Pat Penney.
Sharon Sandrew leaves a beaten path to West Point.
Maury Jacobson leaves Diane to Lee.
Gini Abbiati leaves first.
Belle Rita Margolis leaves, talking.
Steve Balthaser leaves his parking space to Sara Caswell.
John Sennstrom leaves four inches of rubber on Grassy Gutter Road.
Bill Savola leaves his bow tie.
Judy Erickson leaves her French poodle to Mr. Pratt's biology class.
Eddie Mazer leaves — late!
Mary Beth Gladney leaves everyone laughing.
John Cox leaves his height to Peter Guernsey.
Sue Lawsing leaves her cheerleaders to Terry McCormack.
Alyce Atwood leaves the gym reluctantly.
Pat Fedak leaves one good cookbook to her mother.
Don Jacques leaves Ginny.
Ed Trachtenberg leaves everyone much relieved.
Pat Frost leaves one gallon of peroxide to Marcia Mayer.
Betsey Burbank leaves her problems, we hope.
Sherry Greer leaves her corn starch to Mr. Lopes.
Jill Holter leaves her exuberance to a placid junior.
Jerry Van Voorhis and Joan Bachulus leave the school newspaper printed.
The senior Drill Team members leave to the junior members Miss MacIntyre's breakfasts.
Nancy Fisher leaves — whewwwwwww!
To the Sophomores the Senior Class leaves two tons of ashes to prevent them from slipping in their studying.
Ed Mulkerin leaves his little black book to next year's "Most Eligible Bachelor."
David Richter leaves his "million-before-35 ambition" to anyone who wants to make an impression.
Mike Canter leaves the library quiet.
Vonla Burman, with a nod to Deena ('58), leaves Mr. Lopes to Joan Bloom.
Lamar Walter leaves his "bus" service to Pete Strople.
The Senior Class leaves Bill Cox to keep a "paternal" eye on its class gift.
The Senior girls leave their luncheons at the Log Cabin to any adventuresome underclassmen.
The Senior Class leaves June 5, 1959.
We, the Seniors, leave — tire tracks on Blueberry Hill, empty champagne glasses from "The Matchmaker," our love for "Peanuts," the lunch table messy (as usual), our enthusiasm for activities, our sneakers dirty, our gym suits well-used, the trampoline sprung, Miss Baird worn out, the gym empty, and the halls devoid of our bubbling echoes.

In witness thereof we affix our names on the fifth day of June in the year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Nine.
